Centre for Excellence in Project Management (CEPM) formed in 1992 was the first company in India to propagate the concepts of scientific project management. CEPM had great encouragement from leading stalwarts of 1990's such as: Mantosh Sondhi, the legendary management guru and former Secretary to Government of India; Dr. DV Kapur, Founder Chairman of NTPC Ltd., Shri S Rajgopal, a well known Administrator and former Cabinet Secretary and Dr. Abid Hussain, Former Ambassador to United States. Incidentally, they were the Chairpersons of CEPMs first four international events. Initially, CEPM called their annual project management event held every year in New Delhi as an International Conference. Later they renamed their annual event as Global Symposiums.

In view of the importance of project management, Department of Economic Affairs, Ministry of Finance, Government of India supported their First International Conference in 1992 through UNDP. The second and third international conferences organized by CEPM in 1993 and 1994 were also held in association with UNDP.

Since then, CEPM is known globally to have one of the best annual events on project management. CEPM has also conducted more than 500 public and in-company training programs. Since 1992, CEPM has published 14 books on project management.

International Institute of Projects and Program Management (i2P2M), a non profit company incorporated under Section 8 of the Companies Act, 2013 is a premier institution dedicated to providing world-class education in Project, Program and Portfolio (P3) Management. i2P2M has set a new benchmark globally in executive education and PM certification.

i2P2M has collaborated for its International Executive Diploma in Project Management (I/EDPM) Program with The George Washington University School of Business, Washington DC, USA which is the foremost university in project management discipline in USA.

The Academic Industry Council (AIC) of i2P2M has representatives from the best academic institutions of India, industry stalwarts and from the government.
