Project Management Training

CEPM has trained 30,000+ persons on various project management topics and preparation of PM certifications e.g. CIPM, PMP®, Totality of Project Management, Advanced PM Concepts, MS project, Agile PM, Critical Chain, Soft skills etc and to earn PDUs to meet PMP continuing certification requirements.

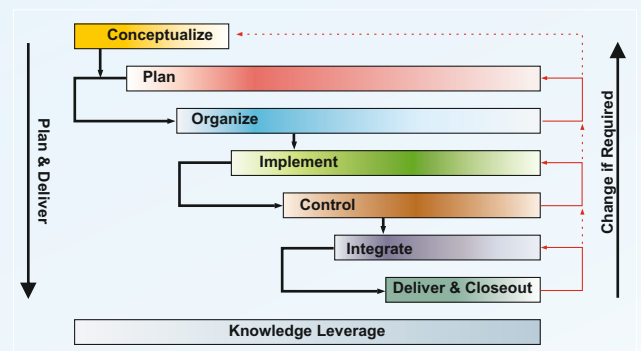

Training is available as face-to-face in-company and public workshops and online e-learning through www.pmguruonline.com. CEPM has also conducted training in association with leading companies / associations such as Microsoft, CBIP, SCOPE, IICA, PHD Chamber of Commerce and academic institutions such as IGNOU, IMT Ghaziabad, IM, IIM Calcutta, University of Chicago, Delhi Center etc.

CEPM had developed the Totality of Project Management (TPM) body of knowledge in 2007 which is divided into 8 project life cycle phases with cutting edge tools and techniques and soft skills. It leads to the Certificate In Project Management (CIPM) credential which is administered by i2P2M, a not-for-profit company that is deeply involved in PM education. 580+ leading public and private sector companies across all sectors have CIPM credential holders.

E-learning In 2003 CEPM pioneered online training in India thru its platform www.pmguruonline.com which is widely used worldwide.

Measuring Organisation's Management Maturity

CEPM, one of Asia-Pacific's leading organisation in carrying out applied research in project management has developed 3 most comprehensive Maturity Assessment methodologies to benchmark organisations:

- Organisation Project Management Maturity Assessment (OPMMA) Model
- Organisation Risk Management Maturity Assessment (ORMMA) Model
- Organisation Human Capital Management Maturity Assessment (OHCMA) Model

Project Management Consulting

CEPM has been involved in providing project management consulting since over two decades. Some of the consulting services provided by us are:

ONGC: to evolve attributes of an Effective Project Manager. 49 attributes were identified.

BHEL: for training & consulting to bring greater awareness on Project management and provide guidelines for strategic initiatives to improve the level of project management maturity in BHEL.

Indian Oil: to evolve a comprehensive project management Body of Knowledge covering Time, Cost, Quality and Scope and integrate PM process covering Scope, Time, Cost and Quality.

Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation (MOSPI), Govt. of India in 2006: for a study on the Certification for Project Managers. The report submitted to MOSPI had far reaching implications in strengthening project management in India.

Project Management Knowledge Quotient (PMKQ) Assessment

PMKQTM measures the Knowledge Quotient in the field of project management. An assessment tool containing 48 questions it measures the current PM knowledge and strengths and weaknesses of users.

This breakthrough concept is used by CEPM at the start of all their training programs to help the faculty to understand the strengths and weaknesses of the participants for more effective training. CEPM has assessed over 5000 professionals from 100 companies and on average the PMKQ Score is 27%. This is low and needs improvement at a National Level.

Real time computer-based project and business simulation programs

In 2016 CEPM became the Indian partner of Prendo Simulations of UK, a world renowned leader in project simulation programs that provide excellent learning to participants where they have to make complex decisions in managing the projects. Simulations are on Stakeholder management, Leadership, Leading change, Decision-making challenges, post merger integration etc.

Same programs are used in top business schools like Wharton, INSEAD, Oxford, London Business School and MIT for their Advanced Management courses and in leading companies like Google, SAP, UNOPS, Total, Deloitte etc. Professionals of more than 70 Indian companies have gone through these simulation programs.
